Description:

The ultimate insiders guide to Chicago, fully illustrated with 111 full-page color photographs. Features interesting and unusual places not found in traditional travel guides. Part of the international 111 Places/111 Shops series with over 170 titles and 1 million copies in print worldwide. Appeals to both the local market (9.5 million people call Chicago home) and the tourist market (over 60 million people visit Chicago every year!). Chicago. City of the Big Shoulders. What started off as a small fur-trading settlement is today a bustling metropolis. Once considered the hog butcher of the world, stacker of wheat, player with railroads and the nations freight handler, Chicagos colorful past remains hidden in the nooks and crannies of this wonderful windy city. Adventures await, from the glamorous to the gritty. Sip dirty martinis in an elegant, underground, 1920s bank vault. Paddle a kayak down the infamous Bubbly Creek of Upton Sinclairs The Jungle. While away an afternoon in a salt cave, or smoke a classic cigar in the oldest family-run tobacco shop in the U.S. Snorkel a 32-acre, limestone sheet shoal, one of the most biodiverse ecosystems in the Midwest. Dine outdoors in a 23rd floor Beaux-Arts cupola overlooking the Chicago River. Whether youre an out-of-towner or a diehard Chicago dweller who thinks youve seen it all, these 111 hidden places are waiting for you to discover them.

As someone who has lived in Chicago for over ten years now I find this book to be a great guide to finding things that I might not have already known about. There are a number of things in here that are fairly well known, but there are also a lot that Id never heard of and that have been fun to check out. Im a stay at home dad with a 2 year old and weve been on several little mini adventures already using the book as a guide. Not really something Id recommend to people visiting Chicago for a brief vacation but ideal for more long term tourists.
