Description:

Very rarely in the Bible does God command someone to “stay.” He opens a door, and then he invites us to walk through it—into the unknown. And how we choose to respond will ultimately determine the lives we will lead and the people we will become. In fact, to fail to embrace the open door is to miss the work God has made for us to do. In All the Places to Go . . . How Will You Know?, bestselling author John Ortberg opens our eyes to the countless open doors God places before us every day, teaches us how to recognize them, and gives us the encouragement to step out in faith and embrace all of the extraordinary opportunities that await. Whether used in conjunction with the DVD curriculum or the book, this participant’s guide contains video notes, discussion questions, suggestions for further study, and ideas for practical application that will help you get the most out of All the Places You’ll Go. So go ahead—walk through that door. You just might do something that lasts for eternity.

I'm 67 years old, I've read hundreds of books, mostly on personal growth, spiritual growth and more than a few on Christian living. The last few are by John Ortberg: Soul Keeping, The Me I Want To Be, Everyone is Normal Until You Get to Know Them, If You Want to Walk on Water and now All the Places to Go. John is not only an insightful writer but it's also obvious he puts a lot of work and research into his writing. Most of us want to know God's will which way to go. This new book debunks some of the myths that there is just one special will or way to go. There will be many doors to go through in life. John explains that sometimes, belief it or not, God doesn't care which one we choose. What he cares about is who we become as we journey through life. This one and only life!
