Description:

As a child his passions were comics and cars, but George Lucas grew up to be one of the most successful filmmakers of all time. He is a producer, screenwriter, director and entrepreneur whose company Lucasfilms pioneered the movie effects that changed the world of animation. He founded Industrial Light and Magic, which transformed special sound and visual effects throughout the Hollywood film industry. He is best known, of course, as the creator of the Star Wars movie, television, gaming, toy and merchandise empire, as well as the archeologist-adventure series Indiana Jones. Discover the man behind the magic in Who Is George Lucas?

My 9 year old son was thrilled yet again with the Who Is/Was series. He loves Star Wars, and hes really interested in the history of movies and film in general, so this book was a huge hit. Were happy that this series goes beyond biographies of the typical historical figures and includes people who have contributed to our modern culture too--Stan Lee, Walt Disney, Steve Jobs, etc. Its harder to find decent childrens biographies on people like this. This book covers Lucass childhood, early career, successes and failures, and information about his most famous movies, including the beloved Star Wars franchise. Theres definitely enough information for most kids, and illustrations scattered throughout. The reading level of these books is appropriate for the recommended age range. The quality of the writing, however, leaves a little to be desired, especially when I have to read it out loud for the benefit of all the siblings. There are too many short, choppy sentences that start with and or but for my taste, hence the reason for only 4 stars. There is no reason these books couldnt be written to a higher standard and still appeal to the same audience.
